25	Public Bodies Leases Act 1969 This Act relates to the powers of certain public bodies to lease land. There is an interface between the Reserves Act 1977 and the Public Bodies Leasing Act 1969 with regard to Local Purpose Reserves.		Asset Manager Strategy and Policy	N	Review to be undertaken	No	Council staff are reviewing this Act to check what (if any) processes are affected) and whether delegations are required. Reserve land is compliant with this act and requiring that it is put to the public. However a significant remainder of the land Council owns is not put out for public tender every time a lease ends as s8 requires. This is mostly due to the costly process that would be involved for each piece of land. There are certain sections (such as the wetlands in Te Aroha) that are advertised every time they come up for renewal. Compliance with this legislation will require further work by staff.

							Reform proposals include stronger powers for the Privacy Commissioner, mandatory reporting of privacy breaches, new offences and increased fines. In particular, the reforms aim to encourage private and public sector agencies to identify risks and prevent incidents that could cause harm. In response to the upcoming changes - A register has been established in Authority to comply with the changes to the Privacy Act. Training is being given to staff handling personal information around the changes to the Act and the purpose of the register. All current forms, hardcopy & digital were reviewed Nov/Dec 2018 to check the personal information requested is required so we minimise what information we then need to maintain. The Information Manager is currently reviewing processes to ensure we are compliant with the new legislation when it comes in to effect in December 2020.
29	Public Records Act 2005 This Act establishes a recordkeeping framework, and focuses on supporting good recordkeeping in government. The Council is to create and maintain records and to dispose of them in accordance with the authority of the Chief Archivist.	The Council is required to create and maintain full and accurate records in accordance with normal, prudent business practice. These records must also be accessible over time. The Council must gain the Chief Archivist's authorisation before disposing of public records.	Information & Technology Manager Communications Manager	Y	Document management	Yes	The Public Records Act also applies to our websites and Social Media. We are working towards complying with this Act by capturing logs on the MPDC website of who made changes, when, and what the change was. Our Disaster Recovery processes also provide the ability to restore old versions of the website, however, these do not comply with the requirements of the Records Act. We have identified the need to manage records from Social Media. This is a known issue in our sector, with a limited number of suitable products available on the market at this time.
