Manager's Certificate information

What is a manager's certificate?

A manager's certificate allows the holder to be appointed as a duty manager of licensed premises for the purposes of the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012. A certificated manager must be on duty at all times when alcohol is being sold or supplied to the public on any licensed premises.

The obligations of a duty manager

The duty manager is responsible for the compliance with and enforcement of the provisions of the act and the conditions of the licence in force on the premises. While on duty, the name of the manager must be prominently displayed.

Making an application for manager's certificate

Applicants must be 20 years of age or over. Complete an application form and ensure all required documentation is attached as outlined in the application checklist. Incomplete applications will be returned.

Criteria

Your suitability to hold a manager's certificate will be assessed in accordance with the following criteria:

- Character and reputation
- Any previous convictions recorded
- Experience working on licensed premises - a reasonable amount of recent experience is required, usually at least six months
- Relevant training and qualifications – applicants are required to have the Licence Controller Qualification (LCQ)
- You must be currently working in the alcohol industry

Licence Controller Qualification (LCQ)

All applicants must obtain the LCQ before you can hold a manager's certificate. The qualification consists of two NZQA unit standards:

- 4646: Demonstrate knowledge of the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012 and its implications for licensed premises
- 16705: Demonstrate knowledge of host responsibility requirements as a duty manager of licensed premises

For further information, see the Service IQ website: www.serviceiq.org.nz/providers/lcq/

LCQ Bridging Test

The LCQ Bridging Test was an online test for people who completed their LCQ training under the repealed Sale of Liquor Act 1989. It was available from 18 December 2013 until 31 January 2017.

If you obtained your LCQ before December 2013 under the Sale of Liquor Act 1989 and did not complete the bridging test within the above dates, you will need to complete the LCQ course again under the new Act.

If you have already completed the LCQ Bridging Test, you can obtain a copy of your completion certificate at <http://www.serviceiq.org.nz/lcq/lcq-bridging-test/>

The application process

Applications can take approximately 4-6 weeks to process, or longer if there is any opposition. A copy of the application is sent to the Police and the Licensing Inspector who will report on the application. You will be required to attend an interview with the Licensing Inspector, which will include a test on the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012. You will be contacted after your application has been received to arrange an appointment. Please allow up to three weeks for us to contact you for an interview.

Finally, once all documentation and reports are received, the application is then put before the District Licensing Committee (DLC) for their decision. If your application is opposed, a hearing may be required. You will receive notification of the DLC's decision via mail.

Renewal applications

All manager's certificates expire after an initial 12 month period, unless you apply to renew it. It is responsibility of the manager's certificate holder to ensure the application for renewal is made before it expires. An expired certificate cannot be renewed. If your certificate expires, you will need to make an application for a new manager's certificate again. Once your certificate is renewed, it will be valid for another three years before it needs to be renewed again.

Suspension/cancellation of manager's certificate

The police or licensing inspector can apply to the Alcohol Regulatory and Licensing Authority (ARLA) to suspend or cancel a manager's certificate if they believe that the manager failed to conduct licensed premises in a proper manner or the conduct of the manager indicates that he or she is not a suitable person to hold a manager's certificate.

Temporary manager

A temporary manager can be appointed if a manager is ill or absent for any reason, or resigns. The licensee may appoint a person who is not the holder of a manager's certificate as a temporary manager. A Notice of Management Change must be completed by the licensee and sent to the DLC and police. If the DLC does not approve of the appointment, they have five working days to advise of this.

The person appointed as a temporary manager must apply for a manager's certificate within two working days. He or she may then continue as a temporary manager until the application for a manager's certificate is determined.

Acting manager

An acting manager can be appointed when a manager is ill or absent for a maximum of three weeks. It is not necessary for this person to apply for a manager's certificate. Once again the Notice of Management Change must be completed by the licensee and sent to the DLC and Police.
